MA AFRIKA TIKKUN HOSTS NELSON MANDELAS 90th BIRTHDAY AT AMORA JAMISON

With Special Guest: Chief Mandla Mandela

July, 2008. An enviable line up of entertainment will dazzle the audience at Amora Hotel Jamison Sydney this Saturday night (26 July, 2008) in a celebration of humanity and reconciliation to honour Nelson Mandela on his 90th birthday. This event is Australia's official celebration of this extraordinary human being.

Deni Hines, Christine Anu, and Richard Clapton will be amongst the entertainment for the evening which will include special guests such as Chief Mandla Mandela from South Africa.

When Nelson Mandela renounced his Xhosa Chieftancy due to advancing age, his request was that the honour be bestowed upon his eldest grandson Mandla, a Rhodes Politics Graduate, who is coming to Australia to share his experiences of his Grandfather.

Hosted by Geraldine Doogue, the $500 per head dinner has been organised by Ma Afrika Tikkun, (meaning Transformation of Mother Africa) who raise funds to promote and organise projects with community leadership that strive to uplift, build and ultimately transform the disadvantaged communities of South Africa which have been affected for decades by the ravages of extreme poverty, disease and the psychological effects resulting from these living conditions.

MaAfrika Tikkun is the only organisation in Australia officially representing Mandela and net funds raised will assist in supporting Mandela's dream of eradicating poverty.

Other events during the evening include an auction which will include items such as Artwork by leading Australian and International artists including Greg Wilson, Arthur Boyd and Fabian Perez, David Moore Photography providing never released photographs of Nelson Mandela, and a Luxury Safari in South Africa including 2 Premium Economy return tickets*
