Paul Burkett, General Manager of Amora Hotel Jamison Sydney believes there are a number of factors that set Amora Jamison Sydney apart from other hotels in Sydney.

"The hotel boasts excellent design, furnishings, ambience and guest facilities, however the attention to detail and warm welcome that we give every guest is paramount," he said.

Amora Hotel Jamison is centrally located at 11 Jamison Street, Sydney, a short stroll from Circular Quay, The Rocks, Darling Harbour and the CBD.

The hotel is an urban sanctuary for guests, combining the ultimate in luxury with Australian contemporary style. Amora Hotel Jamison is the perfect hotel for both the business and leisure traveler; the hotel offers everything you would expect from a 5 star premium property and more...

The hotel boasts 415 well-appointed guest rooms fitted with exceptional furnishings and detail with some rooms featuring views of Sydney's world famous harbour, while others offer amazing views of Darling Harbour and Sydney's cityscape.

In addition the hotel provides their guests with a full range of leisure, conference and business facilities, two bars 'Inbargo' and 'Gallery' and two restaurants.

Whether you are staying overnight, or simply looking for a dining experience, Amora Hotel Jamison Sydney offers a choice of two restaurants, modern Australian 'Charr' or a more casual experience in the 'Gallery Restaurant'.

Both restaurants offer a haven from the fast pace of the CBD and an ambience the envy of surrounding restaurants.

Charr is known for its exceptional produce in a contemporary environment while Gallery for its relaxed environment and 'food from around the world'.

Housed within Amora Hotel Jamison Sydney is also the world renowned Angsana Spa, open to both in-house guests and the general public. It is the ultimate indulgence and spa experience that one can afford oneself.

The hotel also features an up to date gymnasium with the refurbishing being completed in December 2006 (inclusive of all new equipment) along with a heated swimming pool and balcony to soak up the best of Sydney's weather, not to mention the hotel's spa and steam room.
