MEDIA ALERT
For Immediate Release

Bessie Bardot, Sam Brett and Dr Cindy Pan
Turn Out at Amora Hotel Jamison Sydney to Support National Babies Day and the Bonnie Babes Foundation

Amora Hotel Jamison Sydney is once again pledging support to the Bonnie Babes Foundation, hosting their annual black tie event on National Babies Day, Friday October 12, 2007.

Bessie Bardot, Samantha Brett and Dr Cindy Pan will all be in attendance to support the Foundation who raise funds for Perinatal Medicine for medical research projects and to counsel families who are grieving after the loss of a baby. With a 24 hour, 7 day per week grief counselling lines in Australia. The Foundation also assists in education to health professionals.

Amora Hotel is making a major contribution to the evening to ensure that all money raised from the event will be used to support the Bonnie Babes Foundation and its work, and as such the ballroom, food & staff have all been donated to the charity.

The Bonnie Babes Foundation was started in Australia and has since established branches in America.
